

Demystifying information through patient engagement

Why?

Misinformation and easy accessibility to this information have enabled self taught medical experts.

How?

By targeting expecting parents and educating them through our interactive platform.

What?

Narwell is an informational-guided tour providing various interactive scenarios that help inform patients decisions for that day's procedure.

Hi I'm the Measles

Prototype animation

I'm looking for someone to host me and help me grow.

Not all my brother's survived since they couldn't find a host but I'm lucky to have found you.

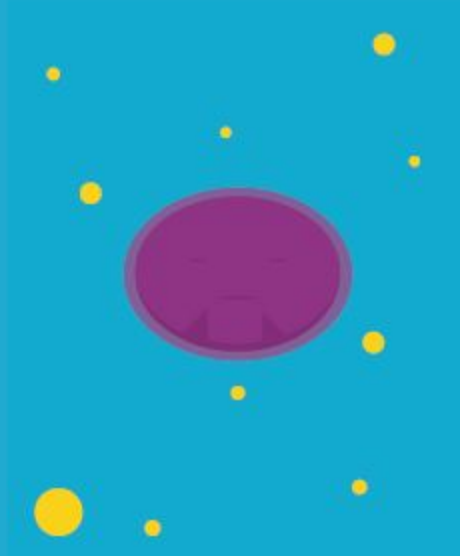

Now that I met you I can survive.

I like it here. I think it's time to unpack my family.

I think im going to enjoy
this vacation.

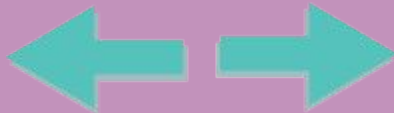

Now I'm ready!

It's a party in here. I wonder why Timmy is feeling so down. LOL
